MOUNT VERNON, OHIO:

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 24, 1882

It was a November sunstroke for Blaine.

After Cleveland's majority in New York got up to 200,000, the Democrats concluded to stop counting.

Arthur is preparing his message. It will probably make reference to his political chum, Charles J. Guiteau.

Chester A. Arthur is now the head, and Billy Mahone and Fort Pillow Chalmers are the tails of the Republican party.

The contest for the Georgia Senate resulted in the election of Pope Barrow for Senator Hill's unexpected term.

The Michigan twin-brother of the Ohio Horvitz got back to Congress to amuse the galleries with his monkey shines.

There has been no advance in Confederate Bonds since the late elections. Will the Republicans please make a note of this?

The New York Tribune's method of "purifying the Republican party" is to throw Arthur and all the Stalwarts overboard.

The Republican party is now chiefly composed of Arthur, Conkling, Gould, Cameron, Mahone and Fort Pillow Chalmers.

Hon. Amos Townsend nominates Hon. Ben Butterworth for Governor. Now, let Ben return the compliment, and nominate Amos.

The papers generally don't give Mr. Blaine credit for sincerity when he announces that he is no longer a candidate for President.

The Republicans now want to "make it unanimous." Well let them wait for another year, and the Democrats will second the motion.

The Ohio Patriot, New Lisbon, gives prominence to its choice, thusly: "For Speaker of the House of Representatives, Samuel J. Randall."

"What is the lesson of the late election?" asks a Republican paper. Any school boy can answer that. It means a Democratic President in 1884.

"Sound the loud timbrel from mountain to sea," chants the Buffalo Courier; "the machine is knocked to pieces—Fraud got the G. B."

Within the past week reports have been cable across the water of a war brewing between Austria and Russia, but they are not well authenticated.

The Republicans think it was cruel for Gov. Foster to issue a Thanksgiving Proclamation this year. They don't see anything to be thankful about.

Bro. Rukenbrod, of the Salem Republican, is said to have his dexter eye set on the Governor's chair. That foolish notion will not be of long duration.

The Quincey Times is the only Republican paper in Ohio, so far as our information extends, that has the courage to defend Jay Hubbell's highway robbery.

The Columbus Journal used to take great delight in telling its readers about "the dead democracy." That subject has been eliminated from its columns.

The Bellaire Nail Works declared a five per cent. dividend. This makes 25 per cent. in dividends in one year. And yet the iron men demand more "protection."

Speaker Keifer has been down to Washington urging the President to appoint his brother-in-law, Judge White, of Springfield, successor to Judge Swine, deceased.

Mrs. Scoville (Guiteau's sister), lectured in London, Canada, one evening last week, and after she got through the audience unanimously resolved that she not insure.

The Democrats of the two Cleveland districts felt so happy over the election of Messrs. Foran and Page, that they presented each of them with handsome hickory canes.

The most prominent Southern paper received at this office prints the familiar military picture of Lydia Pinkham, and passes it off for Mrs. Langtry, the English beauty.

The second trial of Herman Peter for the murder of Philip Belz, is now progressing at Lancaster. Among the attorneys for the defense is Hon. John McSweeney, of Wooster.

It is said that Roscoe Conkling is making overtures to come into the Democratic party. The old party can stand a good many afflictions, but we hope this will not be one of them.

Will the Democrats put Summit county in a Democratic district if they get the Legislature?—Akron News. Why, bless your soul, you are in a Democratic district already. What more do you want?

If Guiteau were alive now, and could read the election news, his punishment would be complete.—Pitts. Chronicle. Guiteau's Stalwart friends are taking a good share of the "punishment."

There will be quite a number of contested seats for the next Congress to act upon, and Ohio will furnish at least three of them, viz: Cramphill vs. Morey, Wallace vs. McKinkley and Neal vs. Hart.

The scarlet fever is prevailing to an alarming extent at the Imbecile Asylum near Columbus. Sixty cases have been made insane by the excitement, the latest victim being Miss Emmons, a dress maker.

Harrison, the "boy preacher," has been holding revival meetings at Grand Rapids, Mich., lately. Three persons have been made insane by the excitement, the latest victim being Miss Emmons, a dress maker.

Cleveland and Patterson, the Governor-elect of New York and Pennsylvania, are the sons of clericalism, and the latter, it is said, of respect for the profession, has chosen a clergyman for his private secretary.

There seems to be a general disposition among the Republicans of Ohio to make Mr. Rutherford B. Hayes their candidate for Governor in 1883. We hope the movement will succeed; for we are sure the people do not desire an opponent to fight more vulnerable to the shafts of truth than the receiver of the stolen Presidency. Oh, goodness! The way he would be peppered and slashed and cut into mince meat, would astonish mankind. Give us Hayes by all means.

The Newark Advocate says that if the recent election had been a Presidential election, and the States had gone just as they did, the vote in the electoral college, which elects the President, would have stood as follows: Republicans, 12; Democrats, 79; Democrats, 810. Or, in other words, we would have had in the electoral college a plurality of 281 votes over the Republican party; and a majority over all other parties of 219! Comment is unnecessary.

For officers of the next Democratic Congress, many aspirants are already mentioned. For Speaker, we have Hon. Sam'l J. Randall of Pennsylvania, Hon. George L. Converse of Ohio and Hon. L. G. Carlisle of Kentucky. For Sergeant at Arms, John G. Thompson and Gen. Steedman, of Ohio, as well as other distinguished gentlemen. For Clerk, Silston Hutchins of Washington and Ex-Congressman Martin of Delaware.

Under the new Congressional apportionment, there will be 401 votes in the next Electoral College, a majority being 201. At the recent elections the Democrats carried 25 States, whose combined Presidential electoral vote is 298, and the Republicans carried 13 States, whose vote is 103. Had the Presidential election taken place this year, the Democrats would have carried their President with 97 electoral votes to spare.

To settle a bet between two Democrats as to whether Hancock or Newman received the largest vote in Ohio, we beg leave to report as follows:

Vote for Hancock.....340,821
Vote for Newman.....316,874

Hancock over Newman..... 23,947
and of Alfred H. Colquitt for the full term commencing March 4th.

Tom Ochiltree, the only Republican elected to Congress in Texas, is going to contest with J. Warren Keifer for the empty honor of being the Republican caucus nominee for Speaker of the next Democratic Congress. Tom is the gentleman who had the kindness to take "the old man" into partnership under the firm name of "Tom Ochiltree & Father."

The Republican papers are reviving the old charge that Ben Butler, who was at New Orleans, during the war, maltreated rebel women and appropriated silver plates and spoons belonging to rebel citizens. Ben no doubt did many mean things in those days, but it must be remembered that he was a Republican then, and had his morals corrupted.

The death of a human being on the gallows is terrible under any conditions, but it is difficult to conceive of law sanctioning any act more painful than the hanging of a girl of 14 years. The commutation by the Governor of Virginia of the death sentence of Mary Booth to imprisonment for life was well considered.

Governor elect Patterson, of Pennsylvania, has determined to do away with the Republican method of inauguration with a grand military display, so contrary to the spirit of republican government, and he declares that, so far as he is concerned, his inauguration shall not cost the people a cent.

President Mack, of the Ohio Editorial Association, gives notice that the annual meeting for 1882 will be held at Dayton on Wednesday, Dec. 6th. After the business session closes the members will become the guests of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Pacific Railroad Company, for an excursion to the South.

After the Ohio election the Republican papers said that the result would only have the effect of arousing "the grand old party," and that they would rally and "sweep the country" in November. The days for Republican victories in this country are numbered with the things beyond the flood.

We have at length received the official vote of Pennsylvania, for Governor, which falls out as follows: Patterson (Dem.) 355,797; Beaver (Rep.) 315,589; Stewart, (Ind. Rep.) 43,743; Pettit, (Pro.) 4,781; Armstrong (L. G.) 22,808. Patterson's plurality over Beaver, 40,208.

The Loudonville Democrat is of the opinion that Hon. Geo. W. Geddes "is the man whose election as Speaker will give confidence to the people of every section of the country." The Democrat is right: There will be no jobbery or packed committees with Geddes as Speaker.

The Ft. Scott Banner says that St. John, the defeated Republican candidate for Governor, in Kansas, has the thanks of the lead-pencil manufacturers at least. It is estimated that there were five miles of lead-pencils used up on election day scratching his name.

Nearly one-half the buckwheat crop in the United States is produced in Pennsylvania. Perhaps this explains why there is so much itch for office in that State, and such lively scratching on election day. The Akron News will caveat this item.

The Delaware Herald is responsible for the statement that Gov. Foster went from Columbus to his home in Fostoria, soon after the recent election, in a condition that was strangely inconsistent with his preaching on the subject of temperance.

The New York Sun says: Schuyler Colfax nominates William Windom for President of the United States. They are both Christian Statesmen. They served together in the House of Representatives. They are pious examples of Republicanism.

The editor of the sprightly Akron News is made happy whenever the BAXTER drops into his sanctum; and the way he attacks it with his pencil and scissors would make a Yankee pumpkin pie crack his sides with laughter.

Senator Voorhees is particularly happy and jubilant over the Democratic victory in Indiana. He says it is going to be permanent. He is confident that the Democratic party will come into power at the next Presidential election.

The North and the South.

A remarkable fact connected with the late elections is this: that all the Democratic gains were in the North, while the Republican gains were in the South. This is reversing the old order of things, when the Republicans endeavored to work up "a solid South" for the Democrats, as against "a solid North" for their own party, so as to keep alive the spirit of sectional hate. Now, however, the policy of that party seems to be to make the South solid for the Republicans and the North for the Democrats, and to accomplish this end, they expect to secure not only the "solid" negro vote, but the most detestable elements in the white population.

In Virginia, the Republican leaders, by uniting with the dishonest Republican gang, who were swayed out of the Democratic ranks, managed to secure the temporary control of that grand old Commonwealth. This coalition was aided and encouraged by the Guiteau President, who permitted the head Boss of the Republicans, Senator Mahone, to dispense the offices and Government patronage in Virginia, so as to promote his personal and political interests.

The Administration, by taking into its confidence the worst leaders of the rebellion—the Longstreets, the Mosbys, the Chalmers, and others, who tortured and starved the Union soldiers during the war, has endeavored to build up a new party in the South so as to overthrow the Southern Democracy; and while Fort Pillow Chalmers will be returned to Congress by this despotic coalition, he will confront "a solid" army of honest Democratic Congressmen from the North, who may come to the conclusion that the Republican Congress treated him properly when they gave him a seat in the Senate.

The Republicans are heartily welcome to all such "converts" in the South. They are men wholly devoid of principle and honesty. They are a millstone around the neck of any party with which they affiliate. The Democracy were fortunate in getting rid of them. They have voluntarily joined hands with the party of plunder and speculation, and there let them abide.

P. S. When the above was written it was supposed that "Fort Pillow Chalmers" was elected. He has been given a dose of his own medicine, and will be permitted to stay at home.

We have received the prospectus of The Daily Times, the new Democratic paper soon to be issued at Cincinnati by a joint-stock company of leading and influential Democrats, among whom are the names of George Hoody, Alexander Long, R. M. Bishop, Charles Deemling, John F. Follett, C. M. Clay Jr., W. G. P. Breckinridge, John C. Underwood and others.

The paper will be a folio of 32 columns—double size on Sunday, and will be issued at the low price of $7.00 per annum. It will give all the news of the day in a compact and readable form. In politics it will be soundly and reliably Democratic, and will work for the good of the whole Democratic party, without making war upon the men who have fought the party's battles for many long years. "It will praise where praise is needed, and condemn when condemnation is demanded in the interest of honest government and public integrity." "Every energy will be exerted to make it a reliable, respectable and cheap newspaper, such as will meet the wants of the reading public."

Mr. John C. Underwood is the General Manager, to whom all communications may be addressed.

Hubbell, the Blackmailer.

The New York Herald states there is a painful rumor afloat in the inner circles of the grand old party at Washington that a large portion of the money which was raised by the enterprising office blackmailer, Mr. Hubbell, was pocketed by the campaign managers instead of having been expended in the districts where it would do the most good. This is a serious charge against the Republican campaign committee and should be rigidly investigated. Every one who contributed has the clear right to know how his "voluntary" subscription was expended, and if Mr. Hubbell will not "voluntarily" produce the accounts there should be some legal way of making him do so. Who got the money and how was it disbursed? A sum amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars was collected. What became of it? Has Hubbell gobbled all of it? In justice to the poor clerks, "scrubbing" women, widows, and orphans of the late rebellion an accounting should be made. Let Mr. Hubbell produce the books.

No Hope for the Republicans in Defeat.

Samuel F. Barr, Senator Cameron's former private secretary, and now a member of Congress elect from the Harrisburgh, Pa., district, in a recent interview said: "The Republican party has no future; their place is fixed. The Democrats have held together for twenty-two years, and there is no hope for Republicans in defeat, and without either offices or money, you will find the party going steadily to pieces."

Mayor Hurst, of Chillicothe, who is one of the "lower grade" mortals of this wicked world, has served notice on the druggists of the Old Capital, that the business of selling and smoking cigars on Sunday must be stopped. Dr. Nippon, one of the parties notified, takes issue with the Mayor, and proposes to test the question in a legal way, and feels confident that the decision rendered by the Supreme Court of Indiana, in 1879, which in substance declared that smoking is not unlawful on Sunday, will be sustained. The St. Smith and St. Foster "reformers" having succeeded in putting down the "Liquor Dealers' Rebellion"—in a horn—we presume the next crusade will be against tobacco and pea-nuts.

It seems, after all, that "Fort Pillow Chalmers," as the Republicans used to call him, is not elected to Congress from Mississippi. The Secretary of State, after a careful canvass of the vote discovered that 1,472 votes which were cast for "J. R. Chambers" in Tate county, were credited to J. R. Chalmers, and he accordingly issued the certificate of election to Van A. Manning, the Democratic candidate, who has a majority of 492. Chalmers has given notice that he will contest.

The Republican papers announce that Mr. Calvin S. Brice, of Lima, will be an aspirant for Mr. Pendleton's seat in the Senate. All we know about his Democracy is that he has the reputation of being a very wealthy man, and is able to buy Railroads or anything that is lying around loose.

Gen. Cunningham, an English officer, has recently found, in the course of his excavations near Mathura, in India, a statue which is more manifestly the product of pure Greek art than any which has hitherto been discovered in India. This statue represents Hercules with the lion skin. Two sculptors, showing Greek influence, and supposed to represent Silenus, were found years ago in the same neighborhood.

A Fisticuff in Court.

A most disgraceful and unprofessional scene occurred in the Muskingum County Court room on Saturday last. Two members of the bar, Col. G. D. Munson and C. A. Beard, in the course of a trial, used unbecomingly language towards each other, and to the astonishment of every one present Colonel Munson went over to Beard, and gave him a blow which felled him to the floor. A rough and tumble fight followed, in which a good deal of hard slug-ging was done, and both gentlemen were pretty badly punished before they could be separated. Judge Ball at once adjourned the Court until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour all the members of the bar and a large crowd of spectators assembled in the court room. Judge Ball asked the offenders if they had any explanation or apology to make in regard to their conduct. Each made a statement.—Col. Munson regretted the occurrence, said he acted from impulse, and made a suitable apology. Mr. Beard said he had nothing to apologize for, that he was attacked without warning or provocation, and that he would have been justified in killing his assailant. Major John O'Neill suggested that the matter be referred to members of the bar for adjudication, which was agreed to, whereupon the legal gentlemen retired, and after a long consultation, in which various opinions were expressed, they returned a "verdict," recommending that no imprisonment punishment should be made, but that Colonel Munson should be fined $100 and Mr. Beard $25. After the excitement had passed off some friendly member of the bar will probably make a motion to have the fines remitted, and the late belligerents will treat the members of the bar to an oyster and champagne supper, and the company will close the entertainment by giving recitations from Mr. Shakespeare's little story, entitled "All's Well That Ends Well."

Presidential Tickets for 1884.

Cleveland and Voorhees, or Cleveland and Hoody are said to be the ticket carved out by some of our Democrats for 1884.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch has hoisted its ticket for 1884 with Grover Cleveland for President and Joseph McDonald for Vice President.

At the Democratic jubilee in Atchison, Kansas, a banner was suspended over the street bearing this inscription: For President, Governor Cleveland, of New York; for Vice President, George W. Gillick, of Kansas.

"Justice" the Great Anti-Monopoly paper published in New York, advocates the nomination of Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, and John H. Reagan, of Texas for President and Vice President.

Here is still another ticket: For President, Judge Jeremiah S. Black of Pennsylvania; for Vice President, Senator White, of Maryland.

The Ohio Penitentiary.

The annual report of the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary will show receipts for the year ending November 15, 1882, as follows: Convict labor, $192,654.26; miscellaneous receipts, $15,177.49; surplus labor, $6,210.22; visitors receipts, $6,054.65; keeping United States prisoners, $188.50; total receipts, $214,235.42. The expenditures were as follows: General expenses, 115,409.97; salaries of directors, $1,938.25; salaries of officers, $15,410.79; salaries of guards, $24,265.52; rewards paid convicts, $4,563; total expenses, $261,687.46. The net earnings of the year aggregate $16,597.96. The report will call the attention of the Governor to the necessity of establishing work shops at the prison. A strong effort was made to secure an appropriation for this purpose last winter, and a stronger one will most likely be made at the coming session of the Legislature.

Candidates for Governor.

Although it will be six months before either party will make nominations for Governor, yet candidates are plenty as "autumnal leaves in Vallambrosa." On the Democratic side the names of the following distinguished gentlemen have been mentioned in connection with the office, viz: George Hoody, Alexander Long, General Durbin Ward, George W. Geddes, Lawrence T. Neal, H. V. Rice, Gen. Ben LeFevre.

On the Republican side we have the names of Charles Foster, George K. Nash, Joseph Turney, George W. Crouse, Rutherford B. Hayes, Gen. James M. Comley, Amos Townsend and Samuel Thomas.

When Col. Bob. Ingersoll announced Gen. Sherman as a candidate for President a good many people regarded it as a joke; but dispatches from Washington state the General is really in dead earnest on the subject, and is actually in fisticuff with Presidency on the brain.

The Columbus Herald, in a column editorial enthusiastically defends Robert Robeson, and claims that he is an honest and good man. The Herald is the special organ of Speaker Keifer, which accounts for this strange political strabismus.

The Chairman of the Iowa Democratic State Committee writes: "We have elected Democratic Congressmen in the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth and Ninth Districts and we are determined that they shall be given their seats."

The condition of Congressman Updegraff of the Jefferson-Belmont district, is said to be getting worse. A later dispatch states that he is dying.

There is no man in Ohio that we would rather see Governor than General Durbin Ward. He has done more hard work for the Democracy, and received less reward than any other man in the State.—Mt. Vernon Banner.

To all of which we say, Amen! If there is any man who deserves well of the Democratic party of Ohio, that man is General Durbin Ward.—Crawford Co. Forum.

Frank Hanson, a hunchback, committed suicide in San Francisco, after meditating such a deed for twenty-seven years. He used to say that his deformity came from a blow given him by a cousin of Roscoe Conkling, on whose farm in Central New York he worked when a boy; but it is thought that he was mistaken, and that the chastisement had nothing to do with the spinal disease, which gradually twisted him into a frightful shape. He discussed suicide a great deal with his acquaintances and at last committed it.

Cunningham, an English officer, has recently found, in the course of his excavations near Mathura, in India, a statue which is more manifestly the product of pure Greek art than any which has hitherto been discovered in India. This statue represents Hercules with the lion skin. Two sculptors, showing Greek influence, and supposed to represent Silenus, were found years ago in the same neighborhood.

Mr. Davis stated that the committee on Public Square improvement had examined the sewer pipe, and found that fifty-three pieces were defective and had been rejected, and that the company furnishing the material had supplied an equal number of perfect pieces of pipe. He also presented a voucher for the payment of freight on the pipe.

A report was read from the Fire Warden stating that they had visited the different wards in the city and examined all buildings and found them to be in good condition, and ordered necessary repairs. That they found a barn on the Ellis property that was in a dangerous condition and condemned the same.

The report was received and placed on file.

Mr. H. Sherwood presented "proof of publication" of his prayer asking vacation of certain streets and alleys in the First Ward, and asked Council to take action on the same.

Mr. Miller moved to refer to the First Ward "Matters." Lost.

Mr. Miller moved that a gasoline lamp be placed at the corner of Jackson and Gambier streets.

Mr. Moore offered an amendment to place a gasoline lamp at the corner of Plimpton and Spivey alleys. Both motions prevailed.

Mr. Brannan moved that a stone crossing be placed over Catherine street at the intersection of the line of the street.

On motion a small bridge was ordered to be placed over gutter on Gambier avenue, in front of the residence of Mr. John Wilson.

Mr. Ransom moved that the Street Commissioner be ordered to make gravel walks on the North side of Chestnut street, from Mechanic street to Norton street, and clean out the gutters. Carried.

The prayer of Mr. Sherwood was then read asking the vacation of a certain alley in his addition.

A remonstrance was read against said vacation, signed by John Wilson, H. Atwood, Jno. Ponting, S. H. Israel and others.

Mr. Ransom moved that Mr. Sherwood's prayer be granted.

Mr. Peterman rose to a question of privilege and stated that he had made it a rule since he had been a Councilman never to vote to give up any rights that had been conceded to the city, and therefore he could not support the motion to vacate said alley.

Mr. Brannan said he did not think it would be prudent to vacate said alley in the face of the strong remonstrance, as it would be setting a bad precedent, and would result in many other petitions of the same sort.

MT. V. C. & W. R. R.

Subscription Books Open, Engineers Surveying the Line, and the Right of Way Being Obtained.

The Mt. Vernon, Coshocton & Wheeling Railroad, the proposed line, has been assuming more tangible shape, and bids fair to soon become a reality. The books of the company are now open for subscription at the office of General G. A. Jones, in this city. Mr. Hanlon, of Massillon, who has charge of the engineer corps, arrived here Wednesday, where he was in consultation with General Jones, Hon. Jno. D. Thompson and other gentlemen interested in the proposed line.

The proposed line will run from Wheeling through the counties of Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison, Tuscarawas, Coshocton, and Knox, to Mt. Vernon, and from there Westwardly through Monroe and Marion to the town of Marion. The distance from Mt. Vernon to Wheeling will not vary much from one hundred miles, and will be from twenty-five to thirty miles shorter than any other railroad now in operation between these points. Underlying the land in all the counties through which the road will pass, east of Knox, the best coal in the State is found in large quantities.

There is a road in course of construction from Harrisburg, Penna., to Wheeling, and one from Marion to Chicago. On the completion of the Mt. V. C. & W. R. R., we would then have a through line from Harrisburg to Chicago. Another great benefit to be derived from the proposed line, is the fact that it would cut the coal fields, which would cause a reduction of at least 33 per cent. This is a big item for manufacturers and all other consumers to consider.

General Jones, President of the proposed new line, has issued a circular, and among other salient points are the following:

"Property-owners and all shippers within miles of the line are especially interested in having this road built, and ought to contribute to one to three dollars per acre. Lands adjacent to the line, and all other lands, will be sold to the owner for three dollars per acre more than now. Lands from two to one-half mile from the line, and all other lands, will be sold to the owner for two dollars per acre more than now. Lands from one-half mile to one mile from the line, and all other lands, will be sold to the owner for one dollar per acre more than now."

It is hoped that the effort to build this line of road will be successful, and to enable us to do so in a reasonable time, we have organized a subscription of the local aid they can, at the first opportunity, and not wait to see if their neighbors will do it all, or conclude it will be built without them, and leave us in the same situation as former organizations.

Mr. Peterman rose to a question of privilege and stated that he had made it a rule since he had been a Councilman never to vote to give up any rights that had been conceded to the city, and therefore he could not support the motion to vacate said alley.

Mr. Brannan said he did not think it would be prudent to vacate said alley in the face of the strong remonstrance, as it would be setting a bad precedent, and would
